(1) Czechoslovakian offensive.

Enemy - Main enemy defenses consisted of minor and scattered groups of rifles and machine gun parties. No enemy armor was observed during the period. Terrain was rolling open country with an occasional patch of woods.

Action - The 612th Tank Destroyer Battalion was in active operations from 1 May to 5 May 1945. During this period this battalion furnished direct fire support and anti-tank protection for the 2nd Infantry Division.

From 1 May to 5 May, Company "A" was attached to the 9th Infantry Regiment, Company "B" to the 23rd Infantry Regiment, and Company "C" to the 36th Infantry Regiment. Battalion moved from Leipsig to take defensive positions along the Germany-Czechoslovakia border, vicinity of WILMCHASSEN, GERMANY. On 5 May Company "B" fired 19 rounds at enemy observation posts and strong points, killing an estimated 12 enemy. On this same date companies attached to their respective regiments jumped off in the attack on Pilzen, Czechoslovakia. The city was entered, liberated, and the 'cease fire' order was ...
