- AWARD OF PURPLE HEART . . . . . II

I -- AWARD OF BRONZE STAR MEDAL. Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, the Bronze Star Medal is awarded to following named individuals:

→ FIRST LIEUTENANT JOSEPH L. KEEBY, O1823168, Field Artillery, First Reconnaissance Platoon, 614th Tank Destroyer Battalion. For heroism in action. On the night of 4 February 1945, LIEUTENANT KEEBY was in command of a raiding party whose mission was to capture the enemy located in a mill between * * * and * * *, France. LIEUTENANT KEEBY brilliantly planned and executed the raid, maintaining the enthusiasm of the raiding party throughout the entire action. He led his patrol to the mill and was with the initial assault elements when they entered the enemy strongpoint. In the fight that followed, LIEUTENANT KEEBY quickly disposed of one of the enemy by a well placed hand grenade. His resourcefulness materially assisted in capturing six of the enemy and in obtaining valuable information. His actions were in accordance with the highest traditions of the military service. Residence: Chicago, Illinois.

→ Private First Class Henry Weaver, 33199728, Field Artillery, Second Reconnaissance Platoon, 614th Tank Destroyer Battalion. For heroism in action. During the night of 4 February 1945, in the vicinity of * * *, France, Private Weaver was a member of an assault group whose mission was to enter an enemy held building on the outskirts of town and capture the occupants. As they approached the objective, enemy automatic rifle fire was directed at them. Private Weaver, quickly observing the source of fire, killed the enemy rifleman before he was able to inflict casualties upon the group. As a result of this raid, six enemy prisoners were taken and valuable information obtained. Private Weaver's heroic action in this engagement was in accordance with the highest traditions of the military service. Residence: Baltimore, Maryland.

→ Private First Class Thomas Ingram, 18213303, Field Artillery, First Reconnaissance Platoon, 614th Tank Destroyer Battalion. For heroism in action. During a raid by our forces in the vicinity of * * *, France, on 4 February 1945, Private Ingram was assigned to a security group with the mission of protecting the assault group. As the men moved out, the enemy opened fire with a machine gun temporarily halting further progress. Firing with deadly accuracy, Private Ingram killed the enemy machine gunner, allowing the assault group to proceed. As a result of the raid, six enemy prisoners were taken and valuable information obtained. Private Ingram's heroic action in this engagement was in accordance with the highest traditions of the military service. Residence: Fort Worth, Texas.

→ Private Leo Greer, 38137617, Field Artillery, Second Reconnaissance Platoon, 614th Tank Destroyer Battalion. For heroism in action. During a raid by our forces in the vicinity of * * *, France, on 4 February 1945, Private Greer was assigned to a security group with the mission of protecting the assault group. As he moved forward to his position, he discovered a machine gun nest manned by two of the enemy about to open fire on the assault group. He attacked the machine gun position, killed the two enemy soldiers and moved on to his assigned post. As a result of this raid, six enemy prisoners were taken and valuable information obtained. Private Greer's heroic action was in accordance with the highest traditions of the military service. Residence: St. Augustine, Texas.

→ Private George Bass, 14019371, Field Artillery, First Reconnaissance Platoon, 614th Tank Destroyer Battalion. For heroism in action. During a raid by our forces in the vicinity of * * *, France, on 4 February 1945, Private Bass was a member of a six man assault group whose mission was to enter a building occupied by the enemy, and either kill or capture them. Bravely preceding his group into the building, Private Bass sprayed the room with fire from his automatic rifle, creating an element of surprise and pinning down the enemy. The assault group proceeded to successfully accomplish its mission and as a result of the raid six of the enemy were taken prisoner and valuable information obtained. Private Bass' action in this engagement was in accordance with the highest traditions of the military service. Residence: Columbus, Georgia.

II -- AWARD OF PURPLE HEART. Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, the Purple Heart is awarded to following named individuals for wounds or injuries received in action against the enemy:

AWARD OF BRONZE STAR MEDAL . . . . . I

I -- AWARD OF BRONZE STAR MEDAL. Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, the Bronze Star Medal is awarded to following named individuals:

Technician Fifth Grade Roy C. Lawson, 17169468, Infantry, Service Company, 411th Infantry Regiment. For heroism in action. On the afternoon of 17 November 1944 in the vicinity of * * *, France, an intense enemy mortar barrage forced a convoy to halt, and drove the personnel to cover. Technician Lawson, Chaplain's Assistant, observing a wounded comrade lying helpless, crawled fifty yards over extremely mountainous terrain, and disregarding the mortar bursts around him, administered first aid and then carried the wounded man to safety. Technician Lawson's actions in saving the life of a comrade were in accordance with the highest traditions of the military service. Residence: Fort Des Moines, Iowa.

Staff Sergeant Burton A. Mills, 36807964, Infantry, Company "I", 411th Infantry Regiment. For heroism in action. On 19 January 1945 in the vicinity of * * *, France, heavy enemy pressure forced the Third Battalion, 411th Infantry Regiment to withdraw over open terrain. Sergeant Mills, acting platoon sergeant, issued his orders and then remained behind to cover the withdrawal by engaging several enemy machine gun nests. Observing that his men had reached safety, Sergeant Mills withdrew and on his way discovered a wounded comrade lying in an exposed position. Disregarding heavy enemy fire he dressed the man's wounds and moved him to a place of safety. Sergeant Mills' actions reflected the highest traditions of the military service. Residence: Beloit, Wisconsin.

Corporal Charles A. Shields, 18097130, Infantry, Cannon Company, 411th Infantry Regiment. For heroic achievement in action. During the daylight hours of 20 January 1945, in the vicinity of * * *, France, Corporal Shields braved intense enemy fire to lay a vitally needed communication line from a position in Company "G"'s area to a new observation post of his platoon. This task accomplished within 75 yards of the enemy enabled fire missions to be directed on enemy emplacements which had inflicted several casualties upon adjacent infantry elements. When mortar shells severed the line in two places,
