1. 09091900 - 09100600

All elements of this battalion disembarked on Red Beach 32 in the vicinity of PAESTUM, ITALY by 1900 and moved into de-waterproofing area to the northeast in the vicinity of the beach. The strength of the battalion had been reduced to 493 enlisted men and 32 officers, prior to embarkation from Bizerte, Tunisia. Vehicle strength had been reduced to 93 vehicles. Battalion was immediately attached to 36th Infantry Division. Given first mission of protecting Division left flank. Battalion went into position astride Highway #18 (Vic. 8609) at 0200.

2. 09100600 - 09110600

Battalion attached to 45th Infantry Division and in turn attached to 179th Infantry at 1200, and given mission of AT defense during the Regiment's advance through PERSANO: Company C in support of 1st and 3rd Battalion, Company A in support of 2nd Battalion, and Company B in regimental reserve.

179th Infantry began move toward PERSANO at 1900. This Battalion was held up in its advance at river ford (880126) until after daylight the next day because of the ford's impassability for M-10's.

3. 09110600 - 09120600

Reconnaissance Company and the Battalion CP moved across ford at 0730 and moved toward PERSANO until stopped in the vicinity of 877134 by enemy fire. Reconnaissance Company was able to get through and around PERSANO to the 179th Infantry sector (1st and 3rd Battalions) while Battalion C.P. was forced to withdraw to vicinity of 875127 on north bank of SELE RIVER. Company B moved into a reserve position in the vicinity of 880142. Company A in firing positions 940143 at 0700.

Enemy artillery and machine gun fire fell on all companies throughout this period. With the battaion being at reduced strength, there were no security or reconnaissance elements with the companies at this time. Battalion C.P. withdrew to vicinity of one mile south of SELE RIVER ford at 1530 hours because of heavy enemy artillery fire falling nearby. After move, C.P. continued to receive intermittent artillery fire.

At 1400, Company C, together with a platoon of medium tanks(753rd Tank Bn) attempted to force way into PERSANO but failed due to 88mm fire, road blocks, blown bridges, machine gun fire, and swampy ground. Losses in this action were seven (7) M-10's (2 destroyed, 5 later recovered) one M2 half track destroyed. Company A moved up to cover enemy tank threat in the vicinity of 962173 at 0900, without being given time for reconnaissance.

PARAGRAPH 3 (CONT'D)

Due to heavy enemy artillery fire at 1200 hours, Company A withdrew to bridge crossing the vicinity of 894153. One platoon moved to cross river at this point, supported by a platoon of medium tanks.

Because of enemy shelling and small arms fire, friendly infantry and attached platoon of medium tanks withdrew to south bank of river. Company A then withdrew losing three M-10's, one by shell fire, two by going into ditches. (One later recovered), two half tracks destroyed, and one motorcycle destroyed. Before Company A withdrew, they destroyed two Mark IV tanks, one Mark VI tank, and one 88mm gun. Entire company withdrew to vicinity 932146, reorganized and took up AT defense positions at 1400 hours. Entire area was shelled from dusk to dawn. No material losses. Two men killed, five men wounded during days actions.
