
Be An American—First

Four and one-half years in service, with three years overseas and participation in the campaigns in North Africa, Sicily, France, and Germany, with three months in a German prison camp. That is the record of Sgt. Harry P. Dunnagan, who is still only 20 years of age and will not be old enough to vote for another six months.

He is only one of many thousands of Americans who have placed their country heavily in their debt before themselves attaining citizenship.
