

ELEVENTH

(Continued from Page 1)

first time serve boys entering military service. Before the canteen was open when the young men gathered at the auditorium before leaving for pre-induction examinations at Omaha.

These men make up the group to go tomorrow:

John William Burns
Darroll Dean Kechely
Robert Frederick Russell
John Martin Ideus
William Albert Frank Hajek
Donald Bruce Noakes
Elmer Woodrow Skow
Ralph Edward Carmichael
Guy Maynard Cullison
Rex E. Bingham
Ehme Fredrick Wallman
Willard Fredrick Schultze
John Harm Ideus
Delmar Ethbert Folden
Paul Wayne Workman
Cecil Henry Hahn
Johann Jurgens
Lloyd George Scott
Dell Elmer Boughen
Waldo Gorden Clough
Leslie Alvin Chaplin
Henry Norman Herman Giesman
Harm Jurgen Harms
Delmar Wayne Champ
Russell Gordon Barnhouse
Lloyd Howard Albert
Walter Fritz Hesterman
Raymond Clarence Meints
Vernon F. Spilker
Alvin Eugene Weiner
Leonard Arthur Fisher
Glen Dale Kaiser
Gilbert Harold Stolzenburg
Henry Tobe Paben
Ernest Baehr
Raymond Herman Rahe
Willard F. Mahloch
Carl Richard Sandusky
Glen George Kracke
Roy Edward Swoboda
Arthur J. Duensing
Howard Douglas Maw
Keith Edward Roberts
Irven Mailahn
Ray Dill Lindekugel
Harold George Walker
Robert Gerald Davison
Cliffton Berg Hillhouse
Ralph Henry Huls
Walter Frederick Ulrich
John Robert Mischnick
John Milton Preskorn
Donald Nathaniel Roberts
Bert William Hohenfelt
George Philip Heist
Maurice J. Stanoscheck
Earl Dean Price
Stanley Joe Vlasak
Helmuth Fred Riggert
Ivan Henry Hagemeier
Melvin Marion Kechley
William Edward Moslander
Joseph Francis Brezina
Arthur Frank Witulski
Donald Wilferd Maw
Perry Joseph Goodell