

Picked to Study British Tactics

LT. COL. NEIL F. HEIN

HUMBIRD, Wis.—Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hein of Humbird that their son, Lieutenant Colonel Neil F. Hein, has been chosen by General Eisenhower as one of two officers in the European War Theater to attend the British Staff school for a period of six months.

Neil was born in Humbird, attended the local schools, and was graduated from the Humbird High school with the class of 1926. He was a member of the 1923 debating team which won the state high school debating championship. He is a graduate of Ripon college and was active in R. O. T. C. work.

For several years he had been employed in Denver, Colorado, entering the military services actively after the outbreak of hostilities. His wife and young son maintain the family home in Denver.
