Dear Ma,

I don't think you will be able to read this as I am still to weak to write. I know you received word that I was wounded I don't want you all worrying about me because I'm o.k. I'm dammed lucky to be alive, I lost my left hand don't think it to bad because lots of the boys were killed. By the time I get home I will have a new one that will work just as good.

Tell every body hello.

Love

Dick
