Greetings!

on the

Second Anniversary

of the

816TH TANK DESTROYER BATTALION

Two years ago, the 816th Tank Destroyer Battalion was actuated at Camp Cooke, California. So much Texas land and water has passed under our bogie wheels since then, however, that the good folk of the Lone Star State have come to regard the outfit as their own. In fact, no one will be surprised when local newspapers start referring to that "well-known Texas battalion, the 816th TDs."

From shore patrol on the Pacific-washed beaches of California, the battalion moved to Camp Bowie, Texas. Next station was still "deep in the heart of" this time in the land of chiggers and ticks, the Cottonwood Camps at Camp Hood, Texas. In the summer of 1943, the 816th moved to Camp Swift and in the fall went on Louisiana Maneuvers, where it established an outstanding record.

The battalion has been under the leadership of Lt. Col. C. K. Darling, Major Elehugh Levy and its present commander, Lt. Col. Wilson L. Burley, Jr.
