RESUME OF OPERATIONS FOR MONTH OF JUNE 1945

The battalion remained attached to the 99th Infantry Division for this period. However, on the 29th of June 1945, the battalion was relieved of attachment to XII Corps and attached to XV Corps, remaining in the Third Army.

Companies of the battalion occupied towns in the Kreis of Gersunden and maintained guard posts on certain railroad and highway bridges and checkpoints on the main roads at the edge of the Kreis. Civilians and discharged soldiers were checked at the check points for passes, etc.

Reconnaissance Company performed guard for the German POW Camp at Gersunden and for POW details working on clean up jobs in towns of Wernfeld and Gersunden and on railroad in Gersunden. POW, under civilian supervision, accomplished most of the work on the construction of the POW Camp, which has a capacity of 600 personnel. Food is supplied the POW Camp by the Kreis of Gersunden.

Each company conducted training throughout the period. Sufficient time was allotted for recreational activities.

Third Platoon, Reconnaissance Company, was attached to the 395th Infantry Regiment for period 1 June to 8 June 1945 with mission of guarding the Russian PW and displaced personnel camp at Wildflecken, Germany.
