

Off to Help Uncle Sam Win the War

Waterbury's latest draft contingent to be inducted into military service left the city yesterday. The group was the second largest to go from Waterbury since America entered the war.

Shown in top photo are registrants from Board 18B: (left to right) seated, Joseph Langlais, Marzlo Carlo, Nicholas Mattoff, Howard King, Arthur Genova, Alfonse Cretella and Joseph W. Scully.

Second row, Fred Hyland, Joseph Cunningham, Theodore Hansen, Eugene Connell, John DiCarlo, Michael Pascucci, Clayton Purdy, Henry Legendre, Herman Prosl and Alfred Tirado.

Back row, Delfio Samperi, Alton McPhee, Louis DiMuzio and Arthur Barrere.

Board 15A, (middle photo): Seated, Walter S. Preslopsky, Joseph C. Kulder, Michael A. Koban, James V. Christiano, John A. Stansz, Stephen E. Hrybanuk and Joseph Walesczyk.

Second row, Michael Bisconti, Demetri Sall, Charles P. Wendoloski, Frank L. Simpson, Paul Danuluck, Alno Paris, Raymond G. Carrington, James J. Donahue, Howard E. Blondin, Pvt. Joseph C. Magarael and Vito Barbieri.

Back row, Vito Rinaldi, Edward Boyce, Gerard T. Moreau, Charles J. Hudak, Domenic Bernacchi and Hubert F. Pond.