

SOUTH HAVEN'S BATTERY HAS 14 OFFICERS, 39 MEN

SOUTH HAVEN, April 21—When the South Haven Anti-Tank Battery of the First Battalion, 177th Field Artillery, arrived from South Haven at Ft. Knox, Ky., Saturday for their year of military training, the personnel consisted of four commissioned officers, ten non-commissioned officers and 39 privates, or a total of 53 men.

The roster of officers and men is: Lieutenant-Colonel Frank T. Warner, commander of the First Battalion; Captain William N. Lane, Battery commander, First Lieutenant Chris K. Kappler and Second Lieutenant Marion L. Compton, comprise the commissioned officers.

Non-commissioned officers included: First Sergeant James H. Pearce; Staff Sergeant Glenn D. Haynes; Sergeants Don E. Lane, Walter E. Schewe, Donald A. Vincent and Stanley C. Wakild.

Battery members were: Corporals Carl D. Mishler, Ira H. Morehead, Daniel C. Olsen and Forrest W. Wilson. Privates First Class—Harry R. Antonson, Elmer L. Brindley, Jack S. Bunch, Chester P. Chamberlin, Bert N. Joyce, Clifford J. Kelly, Charles E. Locicero, Floyd E. Morse, Clayton B. Murray, Harold R. Ragain, Lawrence D. Ridley and William Shappee.

Privates—Marcus F. Alleman, Melvin Beckwith, Perry Chamberlin, Oron N. Cook, John H. Doolittle, Martin Doolittle, Ray L. Engler, Frank J. Foley, Robert L. Hunsberger, Peter I. Hutchins, Loren W. Kuhn, George S. Kuschner, Harold A. LeMieux, Weldon W. Milam, Richard W. Nelson, Otto R. Pekié, Clifford G. Porter, Frank H. Reynolds, Robert L. Rice, Richard D. Roe, Frank J. Rydecki, Morris Schlesinger, Jay D. Self, Stephen F. Snyder, Ralph G. Tolles, Louis Voss and Ernest F. Wick.