

From Wheelchair to Wheel

Paralyzed since he was wounded in action with a Tank Destroyer outfit, John H. Springer of 166-24 90th avenue, Jamaica, leaves his wheelchair to get behind the wheel of a specially-equipped car to take his driving test. Inspector Gerald Nagle of Brooklyn explains the procedure while Motor Vehicle Commissioner Walter McGahan of Bayside looks on. Springer was the first to take the test from the Jamaica Motor Vehicle Bureau, where the cars will be available on Wednesdays.
