'Oklahoma' Star to Be at Red Cross Tea

RICHMOND, March 9.—Members of the residential division of the Richmond Red Cross Campaign Committee will be entertained by James Alexander, male lead of the current stage production, "Oklahoma," at a tea Tuesday. The program will include a discussion of the forthcoming campaign for funds, to begin March 18.

In the MOTOR WORLD

WITH Tom McCabe - AUTO EDITOR

The Technical Adult Evening School at 42nd and Broadway announces an eight weeks course in automobile "Driver Education" to start next Wednesday at 7:15 p.m. Instructor and discussion leader will be H. Morey Coles of the California Department of Motor Vehicles.

The course will consist of a discussion of the essential knowledge and abilities necessary for proper driving. The following topics will be presented: Problems confronting driver; the human element—physical and mental; influences affecting the physical and mental abilities of drivers; habits and their influence in training drivers; relationship of drivers to their cars; re-education of drivers and other people on the roads; relationship of drivers to the road; summary and examinations.

RECAPPIING EQUIPMENT

Jack Robertson, proprietor of the Robertson Tire Company, selling agents for Pirestone and Firestone, announces the installation of up-to-the-minute recapping machinery. Robertson cautions motorists to watch their tires carefully and to drive at reduced speeds if necessary and to keep out of hazardous places. There will be an acute tire shortage for some time. Truck tires will be available before passenger car tires.

Kaiser-Fraser executives announced the appointment of L. M. Creger as regional manager for the Pacific area. Creger will have headquarters in Los Angeles, but says he will divide his time between the Bay area and the South. Creger is a pioneer in the automobile business, particularly the wholesale part of the business. He is confident of big business when the cars start rolling Westward. Many orders are on hand waiting for production to catch up. He anticipates fast action when the labor difficulties are adjusted.

FORD PLANS DISCUSSED

The Ford Dealers Advertising Association of the Ford Richmond Branch area, which embraces Northern California, Southern Oregon and Nevada, met at the Leamington Hotel recently to discuss advertising and sales plans for Spring and Summer, and to elect officers for the ensuing year. Officials of the L. W. Walker Advertising Agency, national organization, were present and are making plans for the campaign. Each dealer in the group contributes to the proposed campaign. Headquarters and meeting place of the group is at Weaver-Paps Company. Meetings are called when directors feel that conditions justify general discussion.

James G. (Jim) Paps was re-elected president; John H. Eagal, Stockton, vice-president; Ellsworth Harold, Sacramento, treasurer; Earl D. Dahlem, Wm. L. Hughson Co., San Francisco; Fred Kurz, Fresno; Aubrey W. Sanderson, Delaplumay; Elmer R. Balsiger, Klamath Falls, Ore. were elected directors for Ford cars and Fred Lundstrom, Sacramento; Ed Lowery, Van Etta, Fresno for Mercury and Lincoln.

Arthur S. Hatch, regional manager; Harry Crimmons, Lincoln manager; and Walter Cooper, regional Ford official, were guests of the dealers.

DEALERS APPOINTED

Verne Orr, vice-president of Chrysler Motors of California, and his son, Verne Orr Jr., have been appointed the authorized Chrysler and Plymouth dealers for the Pasadena territory, according to an announcement made today by Floyd Osborn, Los Angeles regional manager of the Chrysler Sales Corporation. They will be dealers for Pasadena, San Marino, South Pasadena and Ardena.

The new owners took over March 1, when George C. Earley retired after 32 years.

Verne Orr Sr. has been prominent in Pacific Coast automotive circles for 15 years. For the past 10 years he has been the senior Chrysler Corporation official in this area.

Carroll Sullivan has been appointed Plymouth manager.

The many friends of Cecil Whitebone, prominent automobile dealer on Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco, extended sympathy to him on the passing of his mother, Mrs. Dorothy Whitebone, who succumbed to a heart ailment at the age of 71 late last week.

A total of 1,806,145 cars checked by the International Association of Police Chiefs revealed deficiency in the brakes of 14.6 per cent of the cars. Efficient brakes not only prevent accidents, but contribute to the longevity, it is stated.

ENGINEERS' MEETING

Northern California Section, Society of Engineers, announces a meeting next Tuesday night at the Engineers' Club in San Francisco: social hour, 5:30 to 6:15; dinner at 6:15 and an open forum at 7:15 on transportation and maintenance of railroads, trucks and busses. Henry Pape will be chairman. Key men of the industry will participate.

Newton Owen, recently out of the Army, is back as assistant to I. M. Barnett, head of the contract department of the Anglo-California National Bank, according to an announcement. Both men are widely known in Oakland automobile circles and are frequent guests at dealer gatherings.

International Harvester Motor Truck Division has issued an invitation to the first showing of the new International West Coast trucks at the Emeryville works, 59th and Green Streets, tomorrow and Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. James G. Porter, manager of the Oakland sales department, promises many surprises for prospective truck buyers.

Harold Forman, of Forman Motor Company, downtown Chrysler-Plymouth dealer, is optimistic over the outlook for early delivery of Chrysler cars. Production is under way in Detroit and he states that it will be only a short time before long-waiting Chrysler enthusiasts will get cars.

PACKARD PLANS

LeRoy Spencer, vice-president of Earle C. Anthony, Inc., California distributors for Packard cars, called on Reynold C. Johnson, Oakland dealer, late last week. He was accompanied by Russ Robins, San Francisco resident manager. Plans for sales and service on the new cars, which they hope will be rolling in soon, were discussed.

According to announcement made Friday by J. D. Chace, district sales manager of Tide Water Associated Oil Company, a group of the company's executives will conduct sales meetings at the Alameda Hotel, Alameda, California, March 12. Company personnel and Associated dealers in the Oakland area will join together at dinner.

Among the executives to attend the meeting are: W. A. Reanier, domestic sales manager; W. Brunn, manager of service stations department; Harold R. Deal, manager of advertising and sales promotion; Louis Mittelman, chief chemist; Avon Refinery; H. S. Pease, manager of tires, batteries and auto supply sales; J. A. Ransford, supervisor, industrial oil sales, and Ed Roedel, supervisor of reseller accounts.

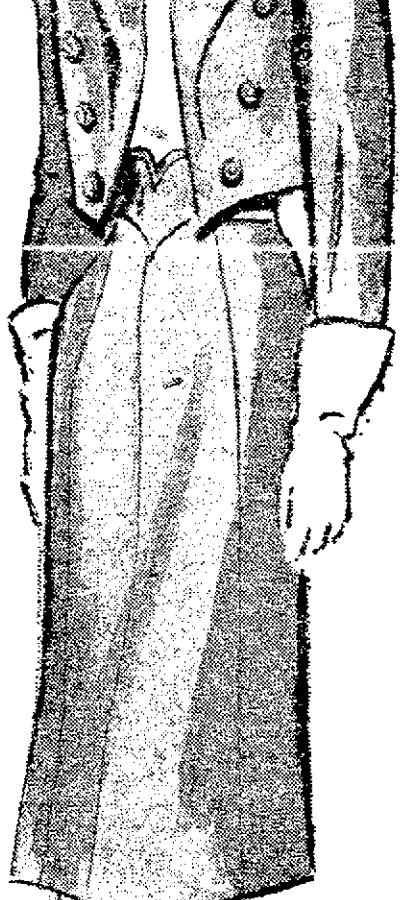

Feature of the dinner will be the story of AroTane gasoline and the company's advertising program because this new gasoline, which is a greatly increased motor travel, which will be further stimulated with tourist traffic this Spring and Summer, we recognize the need of increased distribution and improved facilities," said Chace.
