

COMING AND GOING

CPL. PHIL D'AMICANTONIO PVT. LOUIS D'AMICANTONIO sons of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo D'Amicantonio, of Lantoga road. Corporal Phil has been in the service for 32 months, 13 of which have been spent overseas. As a member of the 817th Tank Destroyer Battalion, he saw 141 continuous days of combat, including the battle of the Hurtgen Forest and the crossing of the Remagen Bridge. He wears the ETO Ribbon with four battle stars. He is now at a staging area, awaiting return home. His brother, Private Louis, having recently completed his basic training at Keesler Field, Miss., is marking time since the Jap surrender, but expects to be sent to the Pacific. Both brothers are graduates of Radnor High School and were key men on the football teams there.
