Lt Col Peter J. Kopcsak,
Commanding, 602nd TD Battalion,
APO 403, U. S. Army.

Dear Colonel Kopcsak:

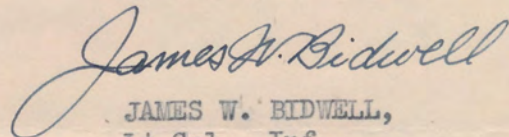

I am in receipt of a letter from the Corps Commander; copy of letter is attached for dissemination to the Command, and for filing with the historical record of your organization.

I am passing this on to you as I feel that the fine work the 602nd TD Battalion has accomplished, in the carrying out of all combat missions and orders, has been the main stay of any success attributed to the 9th TD Group.

I wish to commend you, your officers, and men. Your organization reflects in combat the excellent training standards and ideals that has always been apparent in your leaders and men.

I know that when the final phase of this campaign is set in motion the 602nd TD Battalion will show a bull dog determination and purpose to win. This, in conjunction with the other arms, will bring to our side complete and irrevocable victory.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES W. BIDWELL,
Lt Col., Inf.,
Commanding.

16 October 1944

Lt Colonel James W. Bidwell,
Commanding, 9th TD Group,
APO 403, U. S. Army.

Dear Colonel Bidwell:

The fighting of the last few weeks has punched home to us one point so obvious and so clean cut, that I want every soldier and every officer in the Corps to realize its full significance.

That point is this: The Germans, even the best and most experienced of them are visibly frightened of us. They are frightened by the superior equipment, the more skillful tactics, and above all, by the magnificent courage and will to win shown by the troops of this corps.

We are now between rounds of a fight to the knockout. The last round saw the Boche stagger back into his corner. While we are gathering our strength for the kill, he is hanging on the ropes. He cannot last another -- he is bound to go down. I am confident when the next round comes up, that the troops of the 9th TD Group will show the same courage, the same skill, and the same driving determination to get this war won, that have won for us our successes to date.

I congratulate the 9th TD Group on its performance in the past --
I wish it Godspeed and early victory.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ M. S. Eddy,

SUBJECT: Commendation.

TO : Commanding General, XII Corps Artillery, APO 312,
U. S. Army.

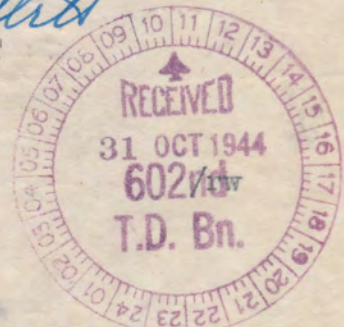

1. During the period 16 October to 26 October, elements of the 602d TD Battalion were attached to the 273d FA Battalion and the 738th FA Battalion, operating under this headquarters. During this period, they performed valuable service in furnishing supporting fires in the 35th and 26th Infantry Divisions and the 4th Armored Division sectors.

2. In this secondary role, they fired 138 missions, expending 2192 rounds of ammunition on observed and on harassing and interdiction fires. The gun crews were always prompt in furnishing fires when and where needed, day or night.

3. I wish to commend the officers and men of the above unit for their fine display of cooperation and desire to do all in their power to kill Germans and destroy their equipment and installations.

SUMMARY OF OPERATIONS, 602 TD BN FOR PERIOD 1 OCTOBER 1944 TO 31 OCTOBER 1944

1. During the period 1 October through 26 October 1944 the battalion, less separate attachments, was attached to the 9th TD Group. On 27 October 1944 the battalion less one platoon was attached to the 26th Infantry Division. Except for attachment of Company "A" to the 2nd Cavalry Group from 1 October to 9 October 1944 and one platoon of Company "B" attached to the 2nd Cavalry Group from 11 October to 31 October 1944 and Company "C" supporting the 80th Infantry Division from 4 October to 26 October 1944, the primary operation of the battalion was indirect firing missions with field artillery units. The missions fired were chiefly harassing and interdiction fire. The details of the indirect firing missions to include type of ammunition fired, rounds fired, targets and effectiveness are contained in the attached periodic report. Further details of operations for the period are contained in the unit journal and incoming and outgoing messages.
