

ALLIED FORCE HEADQUARTERS
Office of the Commander-in-Chief

1 January, 1944

Subject: Farewell Message

To: All men and women serving in or with Allied Forces in the Mediterranean Theater

Soon I leave this theater to assume other duties assigned me by the Allied Governments.

I take my leave of you with feelings of personal regret that are equalled only by my pride in your brilliant accomplishments of the year just past. Although tempted to review again the many advantages that have accrued to the Allied cause through your bravery and fortitude, I believe all these will come home to you if you will merely compare your present position and prospects in this great conflict with your position and outlook in the late Fall of 1942. Then the Eighth Army was making its final preparations to attack the enemy, who was standing only a short distance west of Cairo. Vast Allied armadas were approaching North-west Africa in complete ignorance as to whether good fortune or complete disaster awaited them. Battered Malta was being defended only by the bravery of her almost entirely isolated garrison. No Allied ship could transit the length of the Mediterranean. Our fortunes appeared at a low ebb.

All this is changed—changed by your skill, your determination and your devotion to duty. Enemy action against our convoys in the Mediterranean is limited to harassing and submarine efforts. You have established yourselves on the mainland of Europe. You are still advancing.

You, along with the other Allied Forces fighting on many fronts, have already achieved the certainty that, provided every soldier, sailor and airman, and every citizen in our homelands continues incessantly to do his full duty, victory will be ours.

Altogether you comprise a mighty fighting machine, which, under your new Commander, will continue, as a completely unified instrument of war, to make further inroads into the enemy's defenses and assist in bringing about his final collapse.

Until we meet again in the heart of the enemy's continental stronghold, I send Godspeed and good luck to each of you, along with the assurance of my lasting gratitude and admiration.

Winston Churchill

 Information for Battalion History
 776th Tank Destroyer Bn.

July 41 - to

During the period 1 July 1945 to 12 July 1945 the Battalion was reorganized under redeployment plans. Since the unit had been overseas for a long period of time and had served in both the North African Theater of Operations and the European Theater of Operations a high proportion of the personnel were eligible either for reassignment to a Category I (European Army of Occupation) unit of for return to the United States for separation. At the time of the beginning of the redeployment period the 705th Tank Destroyer Battalion was also attached to the 5th Tank Destroyer Group for redeployment purposes. The 705th Tank Destroyer Battalion was a Category IV unit (scheduled for return ~~xxx~~ to the United States for disbandment). However, the bulk of the enlisted men and officers in that unit had scores below the Interim Critical Score of 85 Adjusted Service Rating Points. The personnel of the 705th Tank Destroyer Battalion were transferred to the 776th Tank Destroyer Battalion along with sufficient personnel from other units to bring the battalion up to Table of Organization strength. A schedule of the source of personnel is as follows:

Lt. Col. John Dibble, Jr, assumed command of the Battalion on 5 July 1945, relieving Lt. Col. Dwight E. Moorhead who was transferred to the 705th Tank Destroyer Battalion.

At the time of the reorganization the unit was located in the vicinity of Berwang, Austria with the ~~mission of occupying the immediate area.~~ About the 15th of July 1945 the Battalion was relieved from attachment to the 103rd Infantry Division and attached to the 11th Armored Division. This change required the movement of the unit from the vicinity of Berwang to Mondsee, Austria where it assumed the mission of general occupation of the area. At the same time the Battalion started on a training program designed to retrain the personnel for combat against the Japanese.
