Pfc. Gallagher Missing in Action In Belgium

Pfc. Bernard F. Gallagher, 29, has been missing in action in Belgium since Dec. 18, according to a war department telegram received Friday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis J. Gallagher, of 8 Brown street.

Pfc. Gallagher has been overseas about a year and served in England, France and Luxemburg before going to Belgium. He entered service in September, 1942, training at Fort Gruber, Okla., Camps Bowie and Hood in Texas and Salina in Kansas. He was with a tank destroyer outfit in the Third Army under General Patton when reported missing. Before entering service he was employed by the Moore and Thompson Paper company.
