

Lieut. Zanoya Is Killed In Action

Lieut. Burton W. Zanoya, 28, died Dec. 15 of wounds received in action in Germany the same day, the war department has notified his brother, Earl Zanoya, 914 Midland st.

Lieut. Zanoya, a member of a tank destroyer outfit, entered service July 3, 1941, and went overseas last June. A graduate of East high school, he was formerly employed by the Rundle-Spence Manufacturing Co. here.

Lieut. Zanoya is survived by two brothers, Earl and Lieut. Philip, who has completed 35 missions over Europe with the army air corps and is now stationed in Columbus, O.

Lt. Burton W. Zanoya

CAPITAL TIMES