

HEADQUARTERS 601ST TANK DESTROYER BATTALION
APO 512

U. S. Army

10 December 1944

Dabulas, Edward A.,
13 116 145

Miss Aldona Dabulas,
602 Court Street,
Scranton, Pennsylvania.

Dear Miss Dabulas;

I wish to take this opportunity to express to you my deepest sympathy at the loss of your brother, Edward. I was his commanding officer and can assure you that he was one of the finest soldiers under my command. He was brave and fearless before the enemy and a hard worker whose thoughtfulness and consideration for others gained him the respect of all who knew him.

Edward was killed in action against our enemy and for this supreme sacrifice has won a place of honor in the hearts of his countrymen who will see to it that he has not died in vain.

It is my sincere hope that you will find comfort in the knowledge that your brother is a hero who has died so that others may live.

Respectfully yours,

Walter E. Tardy

WALTER E. TARDY,
Lieut. Colonel, Field Artillery,
Army of the United States