I don't remember when I wrote you last, but no doubt it has been several weeks. I am back in Belgium for a short period of rest and training. Maybe I can catch up on my letter writing while I am here. It has been a long time that I could go to sleep with being caused for guard, or by the rage of battle. Coming through France was quite a bit of pleasure. We caught several convoys on the road trying to get back to Germany. Since we hit the Sigfried line we had more artillery and mortars thrown at us than the book allows. I am glad you had a nice trip, also that Howard is doing good with his farm work. I am feeling fine, and hope you are the same. Take good care of your army, & that I will see you again.

HAVE YOU FILLED IN COMPLETE ADDRESS AT TOP?
