"The Crisis"

1776 AND 1942

"These are the times that try men's souls. The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will, in this crisis, shrink from the service of their country, but he that stands it now deserves the love and thanks of man and woman. Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered; yet we have this consolation with us—that the harder the conflict the more glorious the triumph. What we obtain too cheap we esteem too lightly; it is dearness only that gives everything its value. Heaven knows how to put a proper price upon its goods, and it would be strange indeed if so celestial an article as Freedom should not be highly rated."

—Thomas Paine

"Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition"

I

Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition,
Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition,
Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition,
And we'll all stay free.

II

Praise the Lord and swing into position;
Can't afford to sit around a wishin';
Praise the Lord,
We're all between perdition and the deep blue sea.

III

Yes the sky pilot said it,
You've got to give him credit
For a son-of-a-gun of a gunner was he.

IV

Shouting—

Praise the Lord, we're on a mighty mission
All aboard! We're not a goin' fishin';
Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition,
And we'll all stay free.
