Worthington Brothers Meet

Pfc. Charlie D. Worthington, left, and Pfc. Claude Worthington, center, sons of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Worthington, of 729 Avenue A, recently met somewhere in France. Pfc. Charlie Worthington entered service in December, 1942, and received his training at Camp Hood, Texas, Camp Gruber, Okla., and participated in the maneuvers in Louisiana and Arizona. He left for foreign service from Fort Dix, N. J. last August, as a member of a Tank Destroyer Battalion. He has earned three Battle Stars for participation in major enagements. His wife and baby reside on North Broad Street. Pfc. Claude Worthington entered service July 9 of last year and was trained at Camp Wheeler. He was transferred to Fort Meade, Md., where he was assigned to overseas service on November 11. Landing in Belgium, he saw action in that country and in Germany and Czechoslovakia. Another brother, Pfc. Andrew Worthington, right, is stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C., with an M. P. Battalion. He took his training at Augusta and Savannah.
