

ABOUT GEORGE MORGAN

Mr. and Mrs. Will Morgan have received a comforting letter from Captain F. J. Redding, written in Tunisia, North Africa, last December 18th, but which reached them a few days ago.

In offering his sympathy in the death of their son, George C. Morgan, who was killed in action November 26th in North Africa, he says in part: "Due to circumstances, your son received a soldier's burial near the battlefield, the services being performed by the battalion chaplain. Circumstances make it impossible at this time to forward his personal effects. Be assured I will do my best to assist in the matter. I add a personal note. Your son was a fine soldier and his death in the face of the enemy is a loss deeply felt by all of the officers and men of this organization. I hope you may draw some small consolation from the fact that he was so highly held in the esteem of his comrades."

Mr. Morgan was with Co. C, 701st Tank Destroyers Battalion.
