GREETINGS FROM OUR COMMANDER
IN CHIEF

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 19, 1987

It gives me great pleasure to send warm greetings to all those who served with the 825th Tank Destroyer Battalion as you meet for your reunion in Myrtle Beach.

Each of you has gone his separate way in the world, but this reunion proves that your service and sacrifice together forged a bond of fellowship that time and distance cannot break. Together you confronted danger and endured terrible hardships, and together you rose to the challenge; you never faltered. Many of your brothers gave their last full measure of devotion so that others might live in freedom. Your accomplishments in defense of liberty will never be forgotten, and America's debt to you will remain far more than we can ever repay.

I take a moment with you to honor your brothers who can no longer answer roll call. God bless you all.

Ronald Reagan

SOME AFTERTHOUGHTS BY LOU:

It was fun wasn't it, and it will be again this year. Our plans call for even more fun this year, bigger and better.

To be bigger, how about all of you who have and are planning again to attend, calling on one person and getting them to come and share this wonderful affair. You said you would help-o.k. this is your contribution.

The letter by the Governor of South Carolina and other officials welcoming our reunion to their state was most welcome and made possible by John McCord. Our thanks to all of South Carolina and to John.

Thanks also to Bob Hammons for the citation from President Reagan and the framed photo.

There was also a letter from the Governor of North Carolina expressing warm sentiments for our past service. Both Governors declared 825th T.D. Week while we were at Myrtle Beach.

Bob also arranged for state representative Theresa Esposito to hand deliver the greeting and speak to us at our banquet. God bless both John and Bob.

I am including on this page pictures of three ladies who will join Frances Doherty as honorary members of the 825. I have told you about state representative Theresa Esposito, she is truly a wonderful person.

Next is Jean Masey. She is June Whitaker's sister and everyone's favorite guest, and lastly Jean Kimpall who along with Steeg Kindburg and the very capable staff at the Sea Mist have contributed so much to our good times. We are grateful for all of their help.

We will once again meet in late October from Wednesday October 26th to Saturday October 29th. Many of us will be there all week, but those are the planned days. I say again, the price is right, so come early and stay late. It's a great vacation. We will be looking for you.
