

RECEIVED MEDICAL DEGREES

Clarence R. Becker

James E. McDonald

Clarence R. Becker and James E. McDonald of this city were among the 230 who received degrees at the commencement exercises at Union college yesterday. Both Cohoesiers received the degree of doctor of medicine. Becker was graduated from Union college in 1930 with the bachelor of arts degree. Mr. McDonald received a commission of first lieutenant, United States Army Reserve corps. He was also awarded the John M. Bigelow prize consisting of $80 awarded to the senior student passing the best examination in diseases of the nose and throat. This prize was endowed by the late Dr. John Bigelow.