

CAMP GORDON ★ AUGUSTA, GA.

MARCH 1st 1944

Dear Ma,

Just a few lines to let you know that every thing is O.K. Don't worry if you don't hear from me for a spell.

Sent a package to-day express. It will land at Bethel. Take care of it for me cause I'll be needing it when I get out. If I don't "Shorty" will have to grow up to fit the clothes. Another package will follow after a while. I'll be back one of these days also. Right now MONTY, FRANK and I are on the war path.

Got a letter from Sonny's girl which I going to send you. Along with a bunch of pictures etc.

Tell Pop that I won't waste any of those shells - they are all going to Count.

Heard from Flora the other day and I have to ans that tonight also.
my letter writing is way ahead
of me these days.

I'm going to give you a bunch of Posted address I've had. Rest you copy them in my little Book

44-?

Ben around gate a bit don't you think?
I'll write again to morrow if I get a chance
Don't be worry cause I have a habit of hitting what I shoot at - Remember.

If I can hit a Jap as square as I hit Kens watch Hell be a thing of the "WAS."

So long -
Dick
