

Theodore Miles Dies in France

Theodore Miles, formerly of here, who has been fighting in the European theater of war, was killed in an action in France July 29, according to word received here this week from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miles, who are living in Bradentin Beach, Fla.

Miles was a private first class. He was Mr. and Mrs. Miles' youngest son. Besides his parents he is survived by a sister and four brothers, including William Miles of Spearfish. He attended Spearfish high school before his parents, who operated a laundry here at one time, moved to Florida to live.

His parents received word of his death in a telegram from the war department dated Aug. 13.
