Training-Aid Shop of the Tank Destroyer School

A group photo of the 16 men involved in the design and creation of training aids utilized by the tank destroyer school. The back of the photo identified that the photo was taken on May 9, 1943.

Commanding the group and shown sitting in the center is Lt. John T. DeJarnette. DeJarnette is also listed on the Tank Destroyer School's Thanksgiving menu from 1942. He is listed there as a 2nd Lt. and as one of two Assistant Property Officers. He is no longer listed on the 1943 menu.

The rest of the men were also identified on the photo and are listed below:
